Annual Coffeehouse Production

Bernard is planning a romantic weekend with his Parisian mistress in a French farmhouse. He has arranged for a cordon bleu cook to prepare gourmet delights, is packing his wife Jacqueline off to her mother's, and has even invited his best friend to provide the alibi. It's foolproof; what could possibly go wrong? Suppose Robert turns up not knowing why he has been invited? Suppose Robert and Jacqueline are secret lovers? What happens if the cook is mistaken for the mistress and the mistress is unable to cook? An evening of hilarious confusion ensues as Bernard and Robert improvise at breakneck speed.

May 7 - 22

Ethel and Norman Thayer return to their summer home on Golden Pond for the forty-eighth year. They are joined by their daughter's soon-to-be stepson, and the boy quickly becomes the "grandchild" the elderly couple have longed for. All of them learn a great deal from each other, and in the end, as the summer wanes, Norman and Ethel are brought closer together. Time, they know, is now against them, but the years have been good and, perhaps, another summer on Golden Pond still awaits.

Annual Summer Youth Musical

 VERY
 GAPPERS
 of FRIP

By Doug Cooney &
 David O.

Young Capable lives in one of the three leaning shacks in the seaside town of Fripp. Gappers are fuzzy orange creatures that wreak havoc on the town and jeopardize the community's goat-milk-based economy. Every day, the children of Fripp brush gappers off their goats to toss them back into the ocean, and every day the gappers return. When the pesky critters target only one of the houses and the neighbors unexpectedly refuse to help, 10-year-old Capable must cope single-handedly with the gapper invasion—which she does with her own special brand of compassion and resourcefulness. After the tables turn on Capable's neighbors, will she rally to their assistance or revel in their comeuppance? This whimsical musical is based on the novel by George Saunders.

Comic antics, witty lyrics, and a beguiling score carry the investigation from room to room.
